ORDER

As per Notification issued under Government Order read as 1st paper above, Government notified that admission to cinema in any place in the State should be made only with a ticket in electronic form. As part of the initiative, it was insisted that necessary electronic devices and controlling devices were to be installed in every cinema theatres and trial run should be done to make sure that the system worked in an efficient and error-free manner. Eventually, it was decided to implement the e-ticketing system in cinema theatres, with effect from 2nd May, 2016.

2) Subsequently, due to certain technical reasons, Government have extended the date of implementation of e-ticketing upto 31/1/2017 as per the Government Orders read as 2nd to 5th above.

3) Government are pleased to order extending the date of implementation of e-ticketing in cinema theatres in the State for a further period up to 30.04.2017. Notification effecting this extension of time will be issued separately.
